

GUEST DIRECTORS

INTERFERENCE PATTERNS

Like a broken mirror, Seattle's Guest Directors reflect a multitude of emotional and musical pathways. On their new LP, Interference Patterns, the songs spiral one after another - sometimes powerful and sometimes delicate. They can sound like snowflakes and hail storms, sometimes in the same song.

Press for previous releases:

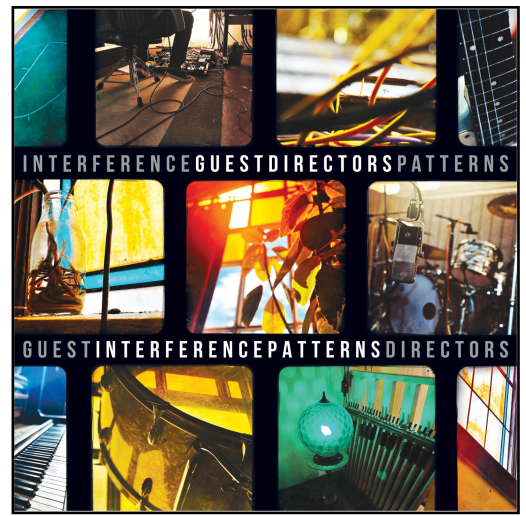

"Imagine Swervedriver's slower, moodier material if Adam Franklin and Jimmy Hartridge dug Television's Richard Lloyd and Tom Verlaine more than The Stooges' James Williamson..." — Big Takeover Magazine (print edition #84) in Jack's Top 40

"An effort that's more muscular than anything they've done recently, there's still much melody to be found packed in between the reverb, dream-pop and tuneful noise of one of the most exciting bands that exists today. 9/10" — Take Effect Reviews

"...delicate musicianship that twinkles behind acute distortion and the energetic delivery." — Sound Read Six

"... a sound world of sad harmonies and beautiful combinations of melodies." — Zine Musical

"...timeless and captivating musicianship...swirling guitar work...intricate drumming." — Take Effect Reviews

Track Listing:

1. From This Distance*
2. Perfect Picture
3. Raise a Glass
4. Blackout Dream Blues
5. Skinless
6. Nico*
7. Laser Hands
8. Stare It Down
9. You'll Never Know

(all tracks clean for FCC airplay)

Listen:

SOUNDCLOUD

Highlights:

- Listen if you like: Swervedriver, Diiv, Sonic Youth.
- Available on vinyl, CD, and streaming.
- Guest Directors have 5 previous EP releases; this is their first full-length.
- Featuring former members of the bands TAD and Chinchilla.

Contact/Socials/Streaming:

- guestdirectors@gmail.com
- guestdirectors.bandcamp.com
- <https://www.facebook.com/guest.directors>
- <https://www.instagram.com/guestdirectors/>
- <https://www.youtube.com/@guestdirectors>